

School scares up great party for Halloween

Contributed by Administrator
Friday, 11 January 2008

Witches, ghosts and goblins, angels and princesses. These are some of the mythical characters that students and their family members chose to be at CUNY Prep's Halloween party. Activities at the party included face painting, a ring toss and bingo. CUNY Prep students painted the faces of some of the kids from the neighborhood, while families enjoyed their time at the Halloween carnival.